

Amit mentions technology as best saviour during FCS&CA review meeting

■ JL NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Feb 4: Amit Sharma, Director Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs Jammu today chaired a comprehensive review-cum-work & performance related meeting of all districts of Jammu Division, Trade & Stores, Mills, Food & Rationing alongwith pending Legal Cases & several related issues of FCS&CA department. The officers who attended the meeting included Pawan Kumar, Joint Director Administration, Rashim Deepika, Chief Accounts Officer, Gurneet Kour, Deputy Director Planning, Joginder Jasrotia, Deputy Director Supplies, Kulraj Singh, Deputy Director Food & Rationing and all Assistant Directors of Division including AD Mills and AD Trade & Stores participated. The major focus of Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma was to use technology as the best saviour for department by ensuring 100% Aadhaar linking of Beneficiaries alongwith usage of ePOS Machines for conduct of transactions. He also emphatically mentioned that Supply Chain Management should be fully implemented in FCS&CA department so that loss due to pilferage, theft and other human errors is minimised. Amit was very categorical in mentioning that strict penal action shall be taken against all such defaulting officials of the department who would be found guilty in such cases as these ration supplies under NPSA are purely meant for PHH/ BPL/AAY population. He maintained that total discipline & vigil should be maintained in distribution of PDS Kerosene Oil amongst the real needy and deserving souls of the state.

Apart from this, all Assistant Directors were directed by Director Amit Sharma to submit various reports in a time bound manner and take lead in conducting checks in the markets especially regarding Essential Commodities falling under the ambit of FCS&CA department. He mentioned that Assistant Directors should adhere to the timelines mentioned in PDS Calendar and make all efforts to clear pendency in Legal matters which have been lingering on for years together for one reason or the other. Assistant Directors of various districts participated actively in the meeting and few decisions were taken to streamline the functioning of FCS&CA department in entire Jammu division. All the officers assured the Head of Department Amit Sharma that they shall perform work with best zeal and enthusiasm in coming times which shall directly result into transparency in working of FCS&CA department and better delivery of services to the public in future.

JAMMU

Amit mentions technology as the best saviour during FCS&CA Review Meeting

Agencies

2/4/2019

JAMMU: Amit Sharma, Director Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs Jammu today chaired a comprehensive review-cum-work & performance related meeting of all districts of Jammu Division, Trade & Stores, Mills, Food & Rationing along with pending Legal Cases & several related issues of FCS&CA department.

The officers who attended the meeting included Pawan Kumar, Joint Director Administration, Rashim Deepika, Chief Accounts Officer, Gurneet Kour, Deputy Director Planning, Joginder Jasrotia, Deputy Director Supplies, Kulraj Singh, Deputy Director Food & Rationing and all Assistant Directors of Division including AD Mills and AD Trade & Stores participated.

The major focus of Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma was to use technology as the best savior for the department by ensuring 100% Aadhaar linking of Beneficiaries along with usage of ePOS Machines for the conduct of transactions. He also emphatically mentioned that Supply Chain Management should be fully implemented in FCS&CA department so that loss due to pilferage, theft and other human errors is minimized. Amit was very categorical in mentioning that strict penal action shall be taken against all such defaulting officials of the department who would be found guilty in such cases as these ration supplies under NFSA are purely meant for PHH/BPL/AAY population. He maintained that total discipline & vigil should be maintained in the distribution of PDS Kerosene Oil amongst the real needy and deserving souls of the state.

Apart from this, all Assistant Directors were directed by Director Amit Sharma to submit various reports in a time-bound manner and take lead in conducting checks in the markets especially regarding Essential Commodities falling under the ambit of FCS&CA department. He mentioned that Assistant Directors should adhere to the timelines mentioned in PDS Calendar and make all efforts to clear pendency in Legal matters which have been lingering on for years together for one reason or the other.

Assistant Directors of various districts participated actively in the meeting and few decisions were taken to streamline the functioning of FCS&CA department in entire Jammu division. All the officers assured the Head of Department Amit Sharma that they shall perform work with best zeal and enthusiasm in coming times which shall directly result into transparency in the working of FCS&CA department and better delivery of services to the public in future.

Amit chairs review cum work, performance meeting

Early Times Report

JAMMU, Feb 4 : Amit Sharma, Director Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Jammu chaired a comprehensive review-cum-work & performance related meeting of all districts of Jammu Division, Trade and Stores, Mills, Food and Rationing alongwith pending Legal Cases and several related issues of FCS&CA department.

The officers who attended the meeting included Pawan Kumar, Joint Director Administration, Rashim Deepika, Chief Accounts Officer, Gurneet Kour, Deputy Director Planning, Joginder Jasrotia, Deputy Director Supplies, Kulraj Singh, Deputy Director Food & Rationing and all Assistant Directors of Division including AD Mills and AD Trade & Stores participated. The major focus of Director

Director, FCS&CA Amit Sharma taking a review meeting at Jammu

FCS&CA Amit Sharma was to use technology as the best saviour for department by ensuring 100% Aadhaar linking of Beneficiaries alongwith usage of ePOS Machines for conduct of transactions. He also emphatically mentioned that Supply Chain Management should be fully implemented in FCS&CA department so that loss due to pilferage, theft and other human errors is minimised. Amit was very categorical in mentioning that strict penal action shall be taken against all such defaulting officials of the department who would be found guilty in such cases as these ration supplies under NFSA are purely meant for PHH/BPL/AAY population. He maintained that total discipline and vigil should be maintained in distribution of PDS Kerosene Oil amongst the real needy and deserving souls of the state. Apart from this, all Assistant Directors were directed by Director Amit Sharma to submit various reports in a time bound manner and take lead in conducting checks in the markets especially regarding Essential Commodities falling under the ambit of FCS&CA department. He mentioned that Assistant Directors should adhere to the timelines mentioned in PDS Calendar and make all efforts to clear pendency in Legal matters which have been lingering on for years together for one reason or the other. Assistant Directors of various districts participated actively in the meeting and few decisions were taken to streamline the functioning of FCS&CA department in entire Jammu division. All the officers assured the Head of Department Amit Sharma that they shall perform work with best zeal and enthusiasm in coming times which shall directly result into transparency in working of FCS&CA department and better delivery of services to the public in future.

Amit Sharma, Director, FCS&CA, chairing a review meeting of the Department.

Amit mentions technology as best saviour during FCS&CA review meeting

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Feb 4: Amit Sharma, Director Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs (FCS&CA) Jammu today chaired a comprehensive review-cum-work and performance related meeting of all districts of Jammu Division, Trade & Stores, Mills, Food & Rationing along with pending Legal Cases & several related issues of FCS&CA department.

The officers who attended the meeting included Pawan Kumar, Joint Director Administration, Rashim Deepika, Chief Accounts Officer, Gurmeet Kour, Deputy Director Planning, Joginder Jasrotia, Deputy Director Supplies, Kulraj Singh, Deputy Director Food & Rationing and all Assistant Directors of Division including AD Mills and AD Trade & Stores.

The major focus of Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma was to use technology as the best saviour for department by ensuring 100% Aadhaar linking of beneficiaries along with usage of ePOS machines for conduct of transactions. He also emphatically mentioned that Supply Chain Management should be fully implemented in FCS&CA Department so that loss due to pilferage, theft and other human errors is minimized.

Amit was very categorical in mentioning that strict penal action shall be taken against all such defaulting officials of the department who would be found guilty in such cases as these ration supplies under NFSA are purely meant for PHH/BPL/AAY population. He maintained that total discipline & vigil should be maintained in distribution of PDS Kerosene Oil amongst the real needy and deserving souls of the State.

Apart from this, all Assistant Directors were directed by Director Amit Sharma to submit various reports in a time bound manner and take lead in conducting checks in the markets especially regarding essential commodities falling under the ambit of FCS&CA Department. He mentioned that Assistant Directors should adhere to the timelines mentioned in PDS Calendar and make all efforts to clear pendency in Legal matters which have been lingering on for years together for one reason or the other.

Assistant Directors of various districts participated actively in the meeting and few decisions were taken to streamline the functioning of FCS&CA department in entire Jammu division.

Accounts employees form Samba unit

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Feb 4: J&K Accounts Employees Association here today elected its Samba unit with Naresh Singh as its President.

Other office bearers elected on this occasion included Bishamber Dass, Vice President; Manohar Lal, General Secretary; Yogesh Gupta, Secretary; Ajay Choudhary, Joint Secretary; Ashok Sethi, Coordinator; Sumit Choudhary, Organiser; Shiv Raj Singh, Advisor; Ajay Sharma, Treasurer and Rakesh Kumar Thappa, Press Secretary.

Amit reviews performance of F, CS & CA Deptt

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Amit Sharma, Director Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs, Jammu reviewed work and performance of the Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs (FCS&CA) Department in respect of all districts of Jammu Division, Trade & Stores, Mills, Food & Rationing along with pending legal cases and several related issues.

The officers who attended the meeting included Pawan Kumar, Joint Director Administration; Rashim Deepika, Chief Accounts Officer; Gurneet Kour, Deputy Director Planning; Joginder Jasrotia, Deputy Director Supplies; Kulraj Singh, Deputy Director Food and Rationing and all Assistant Directors.

The major focus of the Director was to use technology as the best saviour for Department by ensuring 100 percent Aadhaar linking of beneficiaries along with usage of ePOS Machines for making transactions. He also emphatically mentioned that Supply Chain Management should be fully implemented in the Food and CS&CA Department so that loss due to pilferage, theft and other human errors is minimised.

Director FCS&CA, Amit Sharma chairing a meeting.

The Director said that strict penal action shall be taken against all such defaulting officials of the Department who would be found guilty in cases as these ration supplies under NFSA are purely meant for PHH/BPL/AAY population. He maintained that total discipline and vigil should be maintained in distribution of PDS Kerosene Oil amongst the needy and deserving souls of the State.

Apart from this, all Assistant Directors were directed to submit various reports in a time bound manner and take lead in conducting checks in the markets especially regarding essential commodities falling under the ambit of FCS&CA Department. He mentioned that Assistant Directors should adhere to the timelines mentioned in PDS Calendar and make all efforts to clear pendency in legal matters, which have been lingering on for years together for one reason or another.

All the officers assured the Director that they shall perform their duty with best zeal and enthusiasm which shall directly result into transparency in working of FCS&CA Department and better service delivery.

