

KATRA

FCS&CA Joint Team conducts surprise checks holy town of Katra

Jammu Links News

2/9/2019

KATRA: On directions of Amit Sharma, Director, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Jammu, the team of District Reasi conducted intensive market checking drive in Katra (Base Camp for Holy Mata Vaishno Devi Ji Shrine) wherein lot of pilgrimage tourists visit everyday.

A joint team comprising of Dr. Nasir Ahmed Butt, Assistant Director, FCS & CA Reasi, Sardari Lal, Tehsil Supply Officer Katra and Vicky Sharma, Inspector Legal Metrology Reasi under overall supervision of Director, Department of FCS&CA Jammu, Amit Sharma checked various business establishments in Katra town and booked many of them yesterday.

It is pertinent mention here that Amit Sharma, Director FCS&CA Jammu has been receiving complaints through formal and informal resources that in the holy base camp of Mata Vaishno Devi Katra, lot of shopkeepers and business establishments were charging unfair rates for inferior products and innocent pilgrims were getting duped.

He acted promptly on same and in collaboration with Ali Afsar, Controller Legal Metrology, a joint Team of FCS&CA alongwith Legal Metrology was constituted and they conducted a surprise inspection of Holy Township of Katra and ended-up collecting a fine amounting to ₹13000/- under J&K Essential Commodities Act from various Business establishments located there for unfair trade practices.

The team also warned business establishments and shopkeepers not to overcharge items besides displaying of the approved Rate Lists.

Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma complimented the team for prompt action in Katra and he further warned that if any business house found indulged in unfair trade practices especially during these winter months would be dealt in strictly and more stringent action would be taken against the defaulting business houses found involved in such unfair business practices in various areas located in entire Jammu division.

Moreover, he mentioned that many similar surprise drives are lined-up in winter capital of the state and business houses should ensure to follow ethical business practices in Jammu, City of Temples which is known for having highest values and culture.

FCS&CA Joint Team conducts surprise checks holy town of Katra

■ JL NEWS SERVICE

KATRA, Feb 9: On directions of Amit Sharma, Director, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Jammu, the team of District Reasi conducted intensive market checking drive in Katra (Base Camp to Holy Mata Vaishno Devi Ji Shrine) wherein lot of pilgrimage tourists visit everyday. A joint team comprising of Dr. Nasir Ahmed Butt, Assistant Director, FCS & CA Reasi, Sardari Lal, Tehsil Supply Officer Katra and Vicky Sharma, Inspector Legal Metrology Reasi under overall supervision of Director, Department of FCS&CA Jammu, Amit Sharma checked various business establishments in Katra town and booked many of them yesterday.

It is pertinent mention here that Amit Sharma, Director FCS&CA Jammu has been receiving complaints through formal and informal resources that in the holy base camp of Mata Vaishno Devi Katra, lot of shopkeepers and business establishments were charging unfair rates for inferior products and innocent pilgrims were getting duped. He acted promptly on same and in collaboration with Ali Afsar, Controller Legal Metrology, a Joint Team of FCS&CA alongwith Legal Metrology was constituted and they conducted a surprise inspection of Holy Township of Katra and ended-up collecting a fine amounting to Rs 13000/- under J&K Essential Commodities Act from various Business establishments located there for unfair trade practices. The team also warned business establishments and shopkeepers not to overcharge items besides displaying of the approved Rate Lists. Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma complimented the team for prompt action in Katra and he further warned that if any business house found indulged in unfair trade practices especially during these winter months would be dealt in strictly and more stringent action would be taken against the defaulting business houses found involved in such unfair business practices in various areas locate in entire Jammu division. Moreover, he mentioned that many similar surprise drives are lined-up in winter capital of the state and business houses should ensure to follow ethical business practices in Jammu, City of Temples which is known for having highest values and culture.

Rs 13,000 collected as fine from business establishments for unfair trade practices

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Feb 9: Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs (FCS&CA) Jammu conducted market checking at Katra and collected Rs 13,000 as fine from various business establishments for unfair trade practices.

As per official spokesman, on the directions of Amit Sharma, Director, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Jammu, the joint team comprising of Dr Nasir Ahmed Butt, Assistant Director, FCS&CA Reasi, Sardari Lal, Tehsil Supply Officer Katra and Vicky Sharma, Inspector Legal Metrology Reasi checked various business establishments in Katra town and booked many of them.

It is pertinent mention here that Amit Sharma, Director FCS&CA Jammu has been receiving complaints through formal and informal resources that in the holy base camp of Mata Vishno Devi Katra, lot of shopkeepers and business establishments were charging unfair rates for inferior products and innocent pilgrims were getting duped.

Director acted promptly and in collaboration with Ali Afsar, Controller Legal Metrology, a joint team of FCS&CA alongwith Legal Metrology was constituted.

Official spokesman said that the team conducted a surprise inspection of holy township of Katra and recovered Rs 13,000 as fine under J&K Essential Commodities Act from various business establishments for unfair trade practices.

The team also warned business establishments and shopkeepers not to overcharge items besides displaying of the approved rate lists.

Jammu Links News

Yesterday at 11:12 PM •

KATRA: On directions of Amit Sharma, Director, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Jammu, the team of District Reasi conducted intensive market checking drive in Katra (Base Camp fo Holy Mata Vaishno Devi Ji Shrine) wherein lot of pilgrimage tourists visit everyday.

JAMMULINKSNEWS.COM

FCS&CA Joint Team conducts surprise checks holy town of Katra - Jammu Links News

FCS&CA conducts surprise checks

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

KATRA: On the directions of Amit Sharma, Director, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs (FCS&CA) Jammu, the team of district Reasi conducted intensive market checking drive here.

A joint team comprising Dr Nasir Ahmed Butt, Assistant Director, FCS&CA Reasi, Sardari Lal, Tehsil Supply Officer, Katra and Vicky Sharma, Inspector Legal Metrology Reasi checked various business establishments in Katra town and booked many of them yesterday.

It is pertinent to mention here that Amit Sharma has been receiving complaints through formal and informal resources that in the holy base camp of Mata Vaishno Devi Katra, lot of shopkeepers and business establishments were charging exorbitant rates for products from pilgrims.

In this connection, a joint team of FCS&CA and Legal Metrology was constituted which conducted a surprise inspection of Holy Township of Katra and ended-up collecting a fine amounting to Rs 11,000 under J&K Essential Commodities Act from various business establishments located there for unfair trade practices. The team also warned business establishments and shopkeepers not to overcharge items besides displaying the approved Rate Lists.

Officials of FCS&CA and Legal Metrology during the drive at Katra.

A team of Legal Metrology headed by Ali Afzar, Controller was also present.

Director FCS&CA Amit

Sharma complimented the team for prompt action in Katra and he further warned that if any business is house found indulged in unfair trade practices especially during these winter months the department will take stringent action.

Moreover, he mentioned that many similar surprise drives are lined-up in winter capital of the state and business houses should ensure to follow ethical business practices in Jammu, City of Temples which is known for having highest values and culture.

FCS&CA team conducts surprise checks holy town of Katra

Early Times Report

KATRA, Feb 9: On directions of Amit Sharma, Director, Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Jammu, the team of District Reasi conducted intensive market checking drive in Katra (Base Camp of Holy Mata Vaishno Devi Ji Shrine) wherein lot of pilgrimage tourists visit daily.

A joint team comprising of Dr. Nasir Ahmed Butt, Assistant Director, FCS & CA Reasi, Sardari Lal, Tehsil Supply Officer Katra and Vicky Sharma, Inspector Legal Metrology Reasi under overall supervision of Director, Department of FCS&CA Jammu. Amit Sharma checked various business establishments in Katra town and booked many of them yesterday.

Director FCS & CA Amit Sharma conducting surprise check in Katra

It is pertinent mention here that Amit Sharma, Director FCS&CA Jammu has been receiving complaints through formal and informal resources that in the holy base camp of Mata Vaishno Devi Katra, lot of shopkeepers and business establishments were charging unfair rates for inferior products and innocent pilgrims were getting duped.

He acted promptly on same and in collaboration with Ali

Afsar, Controller Legal Metrology, a Joint Team of FCS&CA alongwith Legal Metrology was constituted and they conducted a surprise inspection of Holy Township of Katra and ended-up collecting a fine amounting to ₹13000/- under J&K Essential Commodities Act from various Business establishments located there for unfair trade practices. The team also warned business establishments and shopkeepers not to overcharge items besides displaying of the approved Rate Lists.

Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma complimented the team for prompt action in Katra and he further warned that if any business house found indulged in unfair trade practices especially during these winter months would be dealt in strictly.