

Decision of re-pricing of milk shall be taken soon: Amit

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: Directorate of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs (FCS&CA) Department, Jammu, in collaboration with J&K State Cooperative Union Ltd. and Chamber of Commerce & Industry Jammu organised one-day consultative conclave to discuss production of milk, distribution of milk and its products in Jammu and pricing here on Tuesday at Chamber House.

JCCI President, Rakesh Gupta, Director FCS&CA, Amit Sharma, Chairman J&K Cooperative Union Ltd, Rajesh Sharma, President Federation of Retailers Association, Yash Pal Gupta, President Chamber of Trader Federation, Neeraj Anand and President Consumer Protection Forum, D.R Danish were present on the occasion. Also present among others were Punjab

Director FCS&CA, Amit Sharma speaking at the programme.

Singh, G.D Bakshi, Choudhary Jameel, Kulbhushan Khajuria, Mohammad Shafi Chichi, Rashpal Singh, Sat Pal Singh, Dr. S.K Diwedi from SKUAST, Joginder Singh Jasrotia, Deputy Director FCS&CA and Vice President JCCI Rajeev Gupta.

During the event, the producers of milk claimed that they were incurring huge losses by not getting even the cost price and requested the Director FCS&CA to look into the matter who do not only agreed to their demand but also announced that the representative of milk producers association shall be made a part of the survey and pricing committee.

The Director FCS&CA said that the festive season is fast approaching so the matter regarding re-pricing of milk and milk products shall be taken soon after the festive season.

Yash Pal Gupta and Neeraj Anand also voiced their views and supported the producers and sellers of milk.

Rajesh Sharma, President

J&K Cooperative Union Ltd. thanked the JCCI and said that it was for the first time ever that milk producers and representatives of farmers were invited to Chamber House and their demands taken up by the Chamber.

Rakesh Gupta President JCCI appealed to the Director FCS&CA and the representative from the Legal Metrology Department to cooperate with the milk sellers during the festive season and asked the department that meetings on regular basis between the government, farmers and milk producers and trade representatives shall be made a regular feature so that there is no trust deficit which shall contribute not only towards the confidence building but also making aware the producers and the sellers about the safety standards as required under law.

JAMMU FIRST ✓

Rakesh Gupta

Rajiv Khanna IAS

Rajiv Khanna

Food, Civil Supplies Dept holds consultative conclave at Chamber house

KT NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Sep 25: One day consultative conclave was organized by the Directorate of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department Jammu in collaboration with J&K State Cooperative Union Ltd. And Chamber of Commerce & Industry Jammu at Chamber House.

On this occasion Production of milk, Distribution of Milk and Milk Products in Jammu and pricing thereof was the main focus of the conclave. Prominent among those present were JCCI President Rakesh Gupta, Director FCS& CA Amit Sharma, Chairman J&K Cooperative Union Ltd.

Rajesh Sharma, President Federation of Retailers Association Yash Pal Gupta, President Chamber of Trader Federation Neeraj Anand, President Consumer Protection Forum DR Danish.

Those present among included Punjab Singh, GD Bakshi, Choudhary Jameel, Kulbhushan Khajuria, Mohd. Shafi Chichi, Rashpal Singh, Sat Pal Singh. Dr SK Diwedi from SKUAST , Joginder Singh Jasrotia, Dy. Director FCS&CA and Vice President JCCI Rajeev Gupta.

During the event the producers of milk claimed that they were incurring huge losses by not getting even the cost price and requested the Director FCS& CA to look into the matter who not only agreed to their demand but also announced that the representative of milk producers association shall be made a part of the survey and pricing committee.

One day consultative conclave organised by FCS&CA

JL NEWS SERVICE

JAMMU, Sept 25: A one day consultative conclave was organized by the Directorate of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs, Department Jammu in collaboration with J&K State Cooperative Union Ltd. And Chamber of Commerce & Industry Jammu at Chamber House.

On this occasion Production of milk, Distribution of Milk and Milk Products in Jammu and pricing thereof was the main focus of the conclave.

Prominent among those present were JCCI President Rakesh Gupta, Director FCS& CA Amit Sharma, Chairman J&K Cooperative Union Ltd. Rajesh Sharma, President Federation of Retailers Association Yash Pal Gupta, President Chamber of Trader Federation

Neeraj Anand, President Consumer Protection Forum D.R.Danish. Also present among others were Punjab Singh, G.D. Bakshi, Choudhary Jameel, Kulbhushan Khajuria, Mohd. Shafi Chichi, Rashpal Singh, Sat Pal Singh, Dr. S.K. Diwedi from SKUAST, Joginder Singh Jasrotia, Dy. Director FCS&CA and Vice President JCCI Rajeev Gupta.

During the event the producers of milk claimed that they were incurring huge losses by not getting even the cost price and requested the Director FCS& CA to look into the matter who not only agreed to their demand but also announced that the representative of milk producers association shall be made a part of the survey and pricing committee.

The Director FCS& CA said that the festive season is fast approaching so the matter regarding repricing of milk and milk product shall be taken soon after the festive season.

Mr. Yash Pal Gupta and Mr. Neeraj Anand also voiced their views and supported the producers and seller of milk. Mr. Rajesh Sharma, President

J&K Cooperative Union Ltd. Thanked the JCCI and said that it was for the first time ever that milk producers and representative of farmers were invited to Chamber house and their demands taken up by the Chamber.

Mr. Rakesh Gupta President JCCI appealed to the Director FCS& CA and the representative from the legal metrology department to cooperate with the milk sellers during the festive season and asked the department that meeting on regular basis between the government / farmers / milk producers and trade representatives shall be made a regular features so that there is not trust deficit which shall contribute not only towards the confidence building but also making aware the producers and the sellers about the safety standards as required under law.

Director FCS&CA, Amit Sharma holding interactive meet with members of trade bodies in Jammu on Tuesday.

Trade bodies hold interactive meet with Dir FCS&CA

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Sept 25: A consultative conclave was organized by the Directorate of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department Jammu in collaboration with J&K State Cooperative Union Ltd, Chamber of Commerce & Industry Jammu and other trade bodies here today.

On this occasion, production of milk, distribution of milk and milk products in Jammu and pricing thereof was the main focus of the conclave.

Prominent among those present were Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma, Chairman J&K Cooperative Union Ltd Rajesh Sharma, president JCCI Rakesh Gupta, president Federation of Retailers Association Yash Pal Gupta, president Chamber of Traders Federation Neeraj Anand and president, Consumer Protection Forum, Des Raj Danish.

During the event the producers of milk claimed that they were incurring huge losses by not getting even the cost price and requested the Director FCS&CA to look into the matter who not only agreed to their demand but also announced that the representative of milk producers association shall be made a part of the survey and pricing committee.

The Director FCS&CA said that the festive season is fast approaching so the matter regarding re-pricing of milk and milk products shall be taken soon after the festive season.

Yash Pal Gupta and Neeraj Anand also voiced their views and supported the producers and seller of milk. Rajesh Sharma, president J&K Cooperative Union Ltd aid that it was for the first time ever that milk producers and representative of farmers were invited to Chamber House for projecting their demands.

Rakesh Gupta appealed to the Director FCS&CA and the representative from the Legal Metrology Department to cooperate with the milk sellers during the festive season and asked the department that meeting on regular basis between the Government / farmers / milk producers and trade representatives shall be made a regular feature.

One day consultative conclave organized at CCI-J complex

TNN REPORT

JAMMU: One day consultative conclave was organized by the Directorate of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department Jammu in collaboration with J&K State Cooperative Union Ltd. And Chamber of Commerce & Industry Jammu at Chamber House.

Objective of this conclave was to discuss the production of milk, Distribution of Milk and Milk Products in Jammu and pricing.

Among those present included JCCI President Rakesh Gupta, Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma, Chairman J&K Cooperative Union Ltd Rajesh Sharma, President Federation of Retailers Association Yash Pal Gupta, President Chamber of Trader Federation Neeraj Anand, President Consumer Protection Forum D.R.Danish.

During the event the producers of milk claimed that they were incurring huge losses by not getting even the cost price and requested the Director FCS&CA to look into the matter who not only agreed to their demand but also announced that the representative of milk producers association shall be made a part of the survey and pricing committee. The Director FCS&CA said that the festive season is fast approaching so the matter regarding repricing of milk and milk product shall be taken soon after the festive season.

Rajesh Sharma, President J&K Cooperative Union Ltd Thanked the JCCI and said that it was for the first time ever that milk producers and representative of farmers were invited to Chamber house and their demands taken up by the Chamber.

Rakesh Gupta President

JCCI appealed to the Director FCS&CA and the representative from the legal metrology department to cooperate with the milk sellers during the festive season. He asked the department that meeting on regular basis between the government / farmers / milk producers and trade representatives shall be made a regular features so that there is not trust deficit which shall contribute not only towards the confidence building but also making aware the producers and the sellers about the safety standards as required under law.

Punjab Singh, G.D.Bakshi, Choudhary Jameel, Kulbhushan Khajuria, Mohd Shafi Chichi, Rashpal Singh, Sat Pal Singh. Dr S.K. Diwedi from SKUAST, Joginder Singh Jasrotia, Dy Director FCS&CA and Vice President JCCI Rajeew Gupta were also present in this meeting.

One Day Consultative Conclave Organised By FCS&CA At Chamber House; Amit Sharma Interacts With Businessmen

25 September, 2018, By Cross Town News

JAMMU, Sep 25: Today one day consultative conclave was organized by the Directorate of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department Jammu in collaboration with J&K State Cooperative Union Ltd. And Chamber of Commerce & Industry Jammu at Chamber House. On this occasion Production of milk, Distribution of Milk and Milk Products in Jammu and pricing thereof was the main focus of the conclave. Prominent among those present were JCCI President Sh. Rakesh Gupta, Director FCS& CA Sh. Amit Sharma, Chairman J&K Cooperative Union Ltd. Sh. Rajesh Sharma, President Federation of Retailers Association Sh. Yash Pal Gupta, President Chamber of Trader Federation Sh. Neeraj Anand, President