

FCS&CA Dept suspends three FPS licenses during Eid-ul-Azha checking drive

FCS & CA officials during a checking drive in Jammu

Early Times Report

JAMMU, Aug 18: In a special drive for upcoming Eid-ul-Azha Festival, Director Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs Jammu Amit Sharma directed a Special Surprise Drive along with team of officers from the Directorate, comprising of Deputy Director Supplies Joginder Singh Jasrotia, Deputy Director Food & Rationing Kulraj Singh, Assistant Director Enforcement/Member Vigilance Monitoring Committee Mukhter Ahmed, Assistant Director City Circle-I Zaheer Ahmed Kaifi and Inspectors Raman Kumar, Yogesh Kumar, Pritpal Singh and Puneet Sharma.

As per the directions of Amit Sharma, Director, FCS&CA Jammu, a special surprise Inspection squad in view of the ensuing Eid festivities, comprising of these officers was constituted who conducted random Surprise Checks in Fair Price Shops (FPS) falling under the jurisdiction of City Circle-I and found lot of irregularities in the distribution of foodgrain and non-maintenance of books of records. As a consequence, three FPS dealers, namely Naresh Kumar, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No.227, Mansa Ram, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No.182 and Dharnter Singh, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No.370 were placed under suspension with immediate effect.

In view of upcoming festival season, Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma directed his officers to immediate transfer the Ration Distribution of Suspended Dealers to nearest available Dealers so that public faces no inconvenience in lifting monthly ration as per allotted quotas till their cases are settled. Moreover, he directed FCS&CA teams and squads to conduct more such surprise drives in near future so that the Ration supplies meant for BPL, PHH and such rationees reaches to last mile deserving persons in far flung areas of Jammu Division and all ten Assistant Directors of Jammu need to ensure same in letter and spirit.

It is pertinent to mention here that that a large number of complaints regarding irregularities in distribution of foodgrains were being regularly received from this area and in future, more such special drives shall be launched to ensure free fair and equitable distribution of Ration in all districts of Jammu Division.

Director Amit Sharma complimented his team for conducting a fair drive against wrong-doers and at the same, he has issued an advisory to all erring Dealers that all the Dealers of Jammu Division to refrain from malpractices and exercise utmost honesty in distribution of ration amongst the deserving beneficiaries otherwise they would face more stern action for doing so in future.

F,CS&CA Deptt suspends three FPS Licenses

■ STATE TIMES NEWS

JAMMU: In a special drive for upcoming Eid-ul-Azha Festival, Director Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs Jammu Amit Sharma directed a Special Surprise Drive along with team of officers from the Directorate, comprising of Deputy Director Supplies Joginder Singh Jasrotia, Deputy Director Food & Rationing Kulraj Singh, Assistant Director Enforcement/Member Vigilance Monitoring Committee Mukhter Ahmed, Assistant Director City Circle-I Zaheer Ahmed Kaifi and Inspectors Raman Kumar, Yogesh Kumar, Pritpal Singh and Puneet Sharma.

As per the directions, a special surprise Inspection squad in view of the ensuing Eid festivities, comprising of these officers was constituted who conducted random Surprise Checks in Fair Price Shops (FPS) falling under the jurisdiction of City Circle-I and found lot of irregularities in the distribution of foodgrain and non-maintenance of books of records. As a consequence, three FPS dealers, namely Naresh Kumar, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No.227, Mansa Ram, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No.182 and Dharnter Singh, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No.370 were placed under suspension with immediate effect.

In view of upcoming festival season, Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma directed his officers to immediate transfer the Ration Distribution of Suspended Dealers to nearest available Dealers so that public faces no inconvenience in lifting monthly ration as per allotted quotas till their cases are settled. Moreover, he directed FCS&CA teams and squads to conduct more such surprise drives in near future so that the Ration supplies meant for BPL, PHH and bona-fide rationees reach to deserving persons in far flung areas of Jammu Division and all ten Assistant Directors of Jammu need to ensure same in letter and spirit.

It is pertinent to mention here that that a large number of complaints regarding irregularities in distribution of foodgrains were being regularly received from this area and in future, more such special drives shall be launched to ensure free fair and equitable distribution of Ration in all districts of Jammu Division.

Director Amit Sharma complimented his team for conducting a fair drive against wrongdoers and at the same, he has issued an advisory to all erring Dealers that all the Dealers of Jammu Division to refrain from malpractices and exercise utmost honesty in distribution of ration amongst the deserving beneficiaries otherwise they would face more stern action for doing so in future.

FCS&CA deptt suspends licenses of three Fair Price Shops

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, Aug 18: Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs (FCS&CA) Department today suspended licenses of three Fair Price Shops in City Circle-I for irregularities in distribution of food grains.

In view of upcoming Eid-ul-Azha Festival, a team of officers of the Directorate comprising of Deputy Director Supplies, Joginder Singh Jasrotia, Deputy Director, Food & Rationing Kulraj Singh, Assistant Director, Enforcement/Member Vigilance Monitoring Committee, Mukhter Ahmed, Assistant Director, City Circle-I, Zaheer Ahmed Kaifi and Inspectors Raman Kumar, Yogesh Kumar, Pritpal Singh and Puneet Sharma, conducted random surprise checks in Fair Price Shops (FPS) falling under the jurisdiction of City Circle-I.

During inspection, the team found lot of irregularities in the distribution of food grains and non-maintenance of books of records and consequently suspended three FPS dealers namely Naresh Kumar (FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No 227), Mansa

Ram (FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No 182) and Dharnter Singh (FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No 370) with immediate effect.

The inspection was conducted on the directions of Director, FCS&CA Jammu, Amit Sharma, who also directed his officers to immediately transfer the ration of suspended dealers to nearest available dealers so that public faces no inconvenience in lifting monthly ration as per allotted quotas till their cases are settled.

Moreover, he directed FCS&CA teams and squads to conduct more such surprise drives in near future so that the ration supplies meant for BPL, PHH and such rationees reaches to last mile deserving persons in far flung areas of Jammu Division. He directed all ten Assistant Directors of Jammu to ensure same in letter and spirit.

The Director also issued an advisory to all erring dealers of Jammu Division to refrain from malpractices and exercise utmost honesty in distribution of ration amongst the deserving beneficiaries otherwise they would face more stern action for doing so in future.

FCS&CA Deptt suspends 3 FPS licenses during checking in Jmu

■ TNN REPORT

JAMMU: In a special drive for upcoming Eid-ul-Azha Festival, Director, Food, Civil Supplies & Consumer Affairs, Jammu, Amit Sharma conducted a special surprise checking drive along with team of officers from the Directorate comprising of Deputy Director, Supplies, Joginder Singh Jasrotia; Deputy Director, Food & Rationing, Kulraj Singh; Assistant Director, Enforcement / Member, Vigilance Monitoring Committee, Mukhter Ahmed; Assistant Director, City Circle-I, Zabeer Ahmed Kaifi and Inspectors Raman Kumar, Yogesh Kumar, Pritpal Singh and Puneet Sharma.

As per the directions, a special surprise inspection

Amit Sharma directed officers for immediate transfer of ration distribution of suspended dealers to nearest dealers.

squad in view of the ensuing Eid festivities, comprising of these officers was constituted, who conducted random surprise checks in Fair Price Shops (FPS) falling under the jurisdiction of City Circle-I and found lot of irregularities in the distribution of foodgrain and non-maintenance of books of records. As a consequence, three FPS dealers, namely Naresh Kumar, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No. 227, Mansa Ram, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot No. 182 and Dharnter Singh, FPS Dealer-Paloura Depot

No. 370 were placed under suspension with immediate effect.

In view of upcoming festival season, Director FCS&CA Amit Sharma directed his officers to immediate transfer the ration distribution of suspended dealers to nearest available dealers so that public face no inconvenience in lifting monthly ration as per allotted quotas till their case are settled. Moreover, he directed FCS&CA team and squads to conduct more such surprise drive in near future so that the ration supplies meant for BPL, PHH and bona-fide rationees reach to deserving persons in far flung areas of Jammu division and all ten Assistant Director of Jammu need to ensure same in letter and spirit.